To all families of students at Nagano campus

Announcement of the extension of the online class in Nagano Campus.

On April 16th, the Japanese government declared a state of emergency throughout in Japan.

As a result, we have decided to continue our online classes scheduled for 24th, April for the time being.

We will continue to work to ensure that we can progress steadily toward higher goals for all students such as university and vocational school enrollment.

We will also support the students while keeping track of their health.
