MANABI 外語学院
MANABI Japanese Language Institute

Fiscal year 2021 starts Specified Skilled Worker Japan Employment Program

This is a program that aims to find a job directly after graduation from a Japanese language school, not to advance to higher education in Japan. In addition to studying Japanese language, students can also study to pass the test and learn the business manners necessary for working in a Japanese company

Online lesson

Native speakers will teach online lessons on a wide range of topics including Japanese conversation and Japanese business terms. If you want to learn more advanced Japanese, please contact us.
