UEDA NAGANO

Study in a city with excellent urban functions, yet surrounded by rich nature

Nagano Campus is located in Nagano Prefecture, in the middle of Japan. There are many rich natural features such as cherry blossoms in spring, fresh greenery in early summer, autumn leaves in fall, and snow in winter. There are many sports such as mountain climbing, skiing, and hot springs to enjoy that you cannot find in the city. Another feature of the Nagano Campus is that there are many opportunities to interact with Japanese people, such as participating in local events and volunteer activities. It takes only 90 minutes to Tokyo by Shinkansen bullet train, and with a low cost of living and a safe environment, you can live a safe and comfortable life as a foreign student in Nagano.

Well-equipped with urban functions

There are large supermarkets, schools, hospitals, convenience stores, and other necessities within 10 minutes of the house. The city is very clean and quiet, so it is a great place to concentrate on your studies.

Zero transportation costs and reasonable rent.

You can get around the city by bicycle, so you don't have to pay for transportation. And the most helpful thing is the low cost of living. In particular, rent is less than half of what you would pay in the city.

| Study in a city where modern and traditional cultures merge

The Tokyo Campus is located in Ryogoku, Tokyo. Ryogoku is conveniently located 10 minutes from Tokyo Station by train, 20 minutes from Shinjuku, and 5 minutes from the world-famous Akihabara by train.

Nearby Ryogoku are Asakusa, the Ryogoku Kokugikan (famous for sumo wrestling), and the Edo-Tokyo Museum, and the Tokyo Sky Tree, completed in 2012, is within walking distance. Despite being in a large city, you can still enjoy studying abroad in a town where you can feel the traditional culture.

If you want to live on the cutting edge of culture, Tokyo is the place to be!

A town where modernity and tradition merge

Tokyo is of course a big city, but Ryogoku, where the school is located, is also a historical town where you can feel the traditions of Japan. There are nearly 20 different nationalities among the students, and when you talk to them, you will be exposed to a world you never

To my favorite Akihabara

After school, I often go to Akihabara for fun. From Ryogoku, where the school is located, it is only 2 stops and 5 minutes by train. It is really convenient because I can go to other towns quickly by train.

Educational Characteristics

MANABI values "the feeling of "I could do it! is more important than "understanding.

Optimal learning balance

The curriculum is tailored to your ability level and learning goals, with lessons that balance speaking, listening, reading, and writing.

Students can also improve their language knowledge such as grammar, vocabulary, and kanji, which broaden their range of expression, in parallel. In particular, we use original teaching materials designed to make it easy for students to memorize Kanji, and they learn it well.

Know yourself and take it to the next level!

It is very important for language learning to 'objectively assess one's ability'.

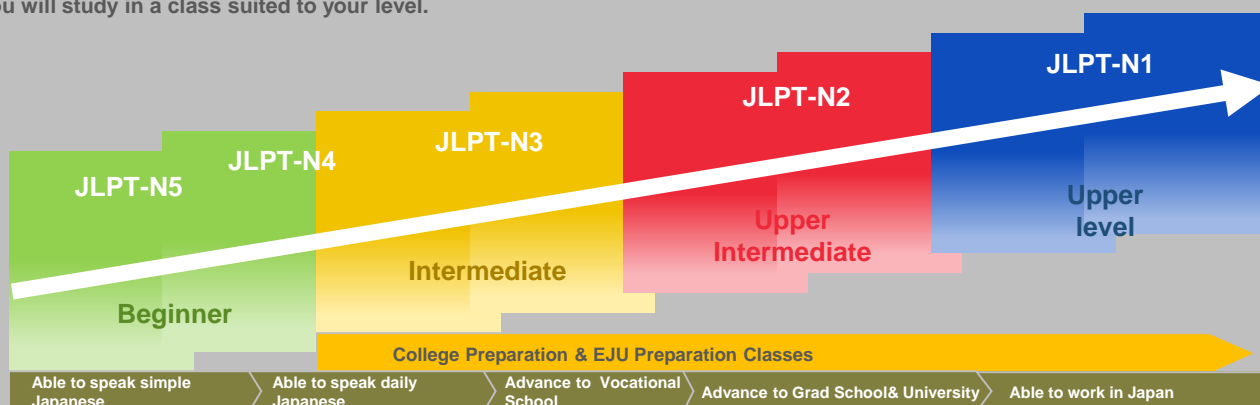

Counseling based on learning outcomes is available every three months. By overcoming weak points, students will have the opportunity to challenge themselves at a higher level.

Graduate School Prep Universities Prep. Program

NAGANO Campus

TOKYO Campus

This course is designed to improve the four skills of reading, listening, writing, and speaking, and to comprehensively acquire the Japanese language as a means of communication in order to enter Japanese universities, graduate schools, and vocational schools.

Depending on the student's academic path and level of Japanese language proficiency, students can choose to take classes to prepare for the JLPT (Japanese Language Proficiency Test) and the EJU (Examination for Japanese University Admission for International Students). You can choose the classes that best suit your academic path and level. The curriculum includes everything from finding a university or graduate school that meets your needs to preparing for the entrance examination and the admission procedures. Special emphasis is placed on writing essays and research proposals, which are especially important in Japanese entrance examinations, as well as conversation practice for interviews, and excellent guidance is provided.

Preparation for EJU

Point 1: Practice-based class format
In order to achieve a high score, we use a practice-oriented class format rather than an input-oriented one.

Point 2: Understanding of the entire exam
Students will take practice tests and receive guidance from the instructor to understand the entire exam and how to prepare for it.

Point 3: Understand the text of the questions
Getting used to the questions in Japanese will lead to a steady improvement in your score!

If you cannot speak Japanese, you cannot live in Japan. You can't get a part-time job. Please study Japanese as much as possible before coming to Japan.

Attendance is the most important factor to get a scholarship. You also need to submit homework and behave properly in class. If you work hard, you will have a good chance to get a scholarship and it will be advantageous for you when you go on to higher education.

Living in the dormitory. I lived in the dormitory of MANABI. There were people from many different countries, and it was sometimes difficult, but we all supported each other because I could not go back to my home country due to my corona overload. We spent New Year's celebrations and birthday celebrations together. Thanks to the dormitory, my loneliness was eased a little.

MANABI's college preparatory support teachers are very attentive and helpful. The most important thing is to listen to the teachers and be punctual. They also helped me with interview practice and essay correction. I appreciate it very much.

Art Universities Prep. Program

TOKYO Campus

This program is designed for students who wish to enter an art university or graduate school in Japan. In this program, students can receive instruction in practical skills, which are the most important for art university entrance exams, in parallel with Japanese language study. In addition to the curriculum of the University and Graduate School Preparation Program, students can apply for the Art University Special Course, which can be applied every semester (3 months).

トールン美術予備校
TORIN School of Art & Design

In the art class, students can receive direct instruction in MANABI's art room from instructors from Torin Art Prep School, a prestigious school for art college entrance exams and the number one school in Japan for seven consecutive years in terms of acceptance rate.

I was able to improve both my Japanese and my art skills.

Each month, an individual schedule is set with the instructor. This made it possible for me to smoothly prepare for practical examinations and interviews. I successfully passed both Tama Art University and Joshibi University of Art and Design! In MANABI's art classes, students speak only Japanese with Japanese teachers. Thanks to this, I was able to naturally acquire art terminology. I also learned how to express myself in Japanese in art Japanese, so I was able to make use of it in my essays and interviews.

I struggled with the interview test. It was my career support teacher who helped me.

The students around me in the class spoke excellent Japanese, and we enjoyed discussing not only Japanese language but also Japanese culture and customs with each other in friendly competition. I did not know anything about finding a job in Japan at first, but the teachers provided me with various support such as how to prepare my PR, how to look for a job, and how to practice interviewing. Without this program, I might have given up on finding a job in Japan and chosen to return to my home country. I made many mistakes, but with the support and encouragement of my teachers, I believe that I am the person I am today. For those of you who are thinking about finding a job, I encourage you to take on this challenge with the determination not to give up until the very end!
