VIII At the time of application Agreement and confirmation items (Must read for applicants and sponsors)

Agree

- When applying to MANABI Japanese Language Institute, please agree to the following conditions.
- If any violation of the terms of the agreement is found, the student agrees to be subject to disciplinary action, including expulsion or dismissal.

1. While enrolled in school, I will abide by Japanese law and school rules, and follow the school's rules and instructions.
2. I will apply for admission after understanding the location, founder, admission requirements, selection procedures, dormitory overview, etc. of MANABI Foreign Language Institute.
3. I will confirm the MANABI Foreign Language Institute's admission fee, tuition fee, payment schedule, amount, and refund policy, and pay without delay.
4. The Certificate of Eligibility and visa required for foreigners to stay in Japan for study abroad, short-term stay, etc. are issued by the Japanese
5. The government after screening the applicant, and MANABI Foreign Language Institute is not responsible for the results of these applications or any additional costs incurred as a result.
6. Whether inside or outside of school, acts such as violence, abusive language, damage to property, and harassment (behavior or words that harm the dignity of others, make them uncomfortable, or cause them harm, regardless of the intention of the perpetrator) are prohibited.
7. If it is discovered that you have provided false information to the school or submitted fraudulently obtained documents, your admission will be revoked even if you have already been enrolled.
8. If there are any changes in the following matters during your time at the school, you must notify the school within one week of the change.
  - a. About the applicant/student: Address, phone number, marital status, occupation, place of employment
  - b. Applicant/student's parents and financial supporter: Address, phone number, occupation, place of employment
9. In the event that a student becomes injured or ill during their time at school and requires emergency medical treatment, the school agrees that the guardian must be able to contact the student within 24 hours.
10. If a student is required to make a decision regarding treatment or procedures for an injury or illness while enrolled at the school, and the student's or guardian's wishes cannot be confirmed, the decision will be left to the doctor or hospital. In addition, if a consent form for a treatment plan is required, MANABI Foreign Language Institute staff and related parties will be authorised to sign on behalf of the guardian. We will not seek liability for damages from MANABI Foreign Language Institute, MANABI Foreign Language Institute staff and related parties for the results of such decisions.
11. Photos taken during school classes or events may be published in a form that reveals the faces of students in printed materials such as brochures, web pages, and SNS (Facebook, Instagram, etc.) for the purpose of publicizing MANABI Foreign Language Institute or introducing its activities. If there are circumstances that prevent the photos from being published, you must request that the photos not be published.

Additional Info

Please check the following items regarding student visa regulations.

1. Even if the student is within the permitted period of the student visa, if the school reports the student's withdrawal to the Immigration Bureau for reasons such as continued non-attendance, the student will no longer be affiliated with an educational institution and will be required to return to his or her home country immediately.
2. If the school determines that a student enrolled on a short-term visitor visa has a significantly low attendance record during their enrollment period or shows no intention of continuing their studies, the school will revoke their admission on a student visa.
3. [Student Visa] Even if your residence status is valid, if you work part-time or otherwise without being affiliated with an educational institution, this will be considered "illegal employment" and you will be in violation of Japanese law.
4. Students with a student visa need permission to engage in activities other than those permitted under the visa status granted ...
5. Students are allowed to work part-time up to 28 hours per week with a work permit. During long vacations set by the school, students may work part-time up to 8 hours per day and 40 hours per week within the scope of the Labour Standards Law. However, even with a work permit, you may not engage in work that is prohibited for foreign students, such as that related to the adult entertainment industry.
6. If you are enrolled on a student visa, you are required to enrol in the "National Health Insurance." 70% of medical expenses are covered by the Japanese government under the "National Health Insurance." At the same time, you must enrol in the "Japanese Language School Cooperative Association International Student Security Scheme."
7. Anyone aged 20 or over who resides in Japan is obligated to pay the National Pension Insurance premium, even if they are a foreign national. If you do not pay this premium, you may encounter inconveniences, such as not being able to change your visa status.

If the student is a minor (under 20 years of age)

Please check the following laws and regulations:

1. If you are a minor (under the age of 20), please read the following laws and regulations. Drinking and smoking are prohibited for those under the age of 20 under Japanese law. The school will treat minor students who possess alcohol or tobacco in the same manner.
2. It is prohibited for persons under the age of 18 to stay overnight outside of their accommodation or to go out without a supervising person between the hours of 10 pm and 5 am the following day.
